CITY AND SUBURBAN.
 The Franklin Cadets will continue their fair at Forrest Hall this evening.

The American Surgical Association brought its annual meeting to a close yesterday afternoon.

Hon. S. S. Cox has been repurchased from Mr. Arthur Padelford No. 1 Dupont Circle, where he formerly lived. Price $10,000.

R. D. McClure of 3331 M street reports to the police that his residence was robbed of $20 in cash between the hours of 1 a. m. and 5 p. m. yesterday.

Messrs. Fish, Fox & Brown have sold to Charles J. Bell, the banker, the property on the northeast corner of H street and Vermont avenue for $75,073, about $8 per foot.

Several Washington companies have been invited to attend the unveiling of the Lee Monument at Alexandria on the 24th instant. The work of rigging the derrick was finished yesterday.

Mrs. M. J. Appleby of 325 Maryland avenue suffered a severe injury, about the head by being thrown to the pavement as she was alighting from car No. 79, Metropolitan Railroad, at Third and East Capitol streets last evening.

At the regular annual election the Knights of St. Columbian elected the following officers for the ensuing year: T. A. Duffy, captain; James Lawlor, first lieutenant; Charles McLaughlin, second lieutenant; P. Maloney, first sergeant; M. D. Stark, treasurer; W. Murphy, secretary.

The work of opening the trenches for the water supply will not begin until September 1, and the delay will give the pipe factory a chance to provide sufficient material to begin work with. The new 48-inch main is to connect with the present 48-inch main at Fourth and R streets.

The College of Pharmacy.
 The commencement exercises of the National College of Pharmacy were held at Albemarle yesterday afternoon. Monte Griffith delivered the salutatory.

Professor H. E. Kalmowski, the president of the college, then conferred the degrees on the graduates, who were as follows: Edward Boyd, D. C.; J. S. Clemence, D. C.; Wm. E. Emery, Pa.; W. W. Fisher, Pa.; C. J. Gillette, Pa.; T. Grimes, Md.; W. P. J. Herbert, Pa.; J. S. Higdon, Md.; A. Menke, D. C.; C. J. Ordling, Ill.; J. O'Donnell, D. C.; George B. Weiss, D. C.; and Robert L. Wrenn, Va. Professor Friston addressed to the graduates some good advice and Wm. P. Herbert delivered the valedictory. In the evening the alumni banqueted at Harvey's.

Our Display.
 For the present season embraces all the fashionable varieties of men's attire for town, seashore or mountain use. Being the manufacturers of all we sell, and having studied the wants of our patrons down to the smallest detail, we have gained a doubt just what you want. We especially invite inspection of our $8.50 and $12.50 cashmere and cheviot suits.

KENNEDY, BROS. 7th and E. Manufacturing Clothiers and Tailors.

Forest Glen Festivities.
 Fully 500 persons attended the garden party given for the benefit of the Homeopathic Free Dispensary at Carroll Springs Sanatorium, Forest Glen, in the afternoon. A tournament was held in the lake leading to the grounds, out of which Mr. Frank Keys came first. E. Keys second, Alfred Day third and Howard Hatcher fourth. Mr. Will Robertson gave an interesting exhibition of fancy, bicycling on the lawn afterward. In the evening dancing was indulged in at the Sanatorium by a number, but the majority preferred to sit still and enjoy the cool air. The grounds were attractively lighted with Chinese lanterns. During the evening Miss Barrett was crowned Queen of the Sports and Misses Harding, Noyes and Kern made of honor.

The Dorsey-Coleman Fight.
 George Coleman and Tom Dorsey, colored, fought eleven rounds for $50 a side on the Virginia side of the river, above Georgetown, last night. Dorsey claimed a foul after the tenth round, but the referee, Bob Connell, would not allow it. Another round was fought when Dorsey refused to continue, and the fight was awarded to Coleman, both of whose eyes had been closed.

Run Down by an Electric Car.
 At about 5 o'clock this morning an electric railway car ran into a horse and male attached to a wood wagon, driven by G. W. Leasley, down Fifth street. Mr. Leasley was slightly injured, but the horse and male with probably died. The same was reported by Agent Key of the Humane Society.

Quick Time to Baltimore.
 The B. & O. Train service to Baltimore meets the public demand for rapid transit. The B. & O. runs 5 trains daily, covering the distance in 45 minutes, 4 in 50 minutes and 6 in one hour. There are 24 trains per day to Washington in the B. & O. schedule.

Notwithstanding the Rush in our Tailoring Department for the past week, we are still making suits to order for $20 and trousers to order for $5, and an elegant assortment to select from, too, owing to the fact that we are constantly receiving consignments of cloth.

MARYLAND AND VIRGINIA.

The body of the colored man who was drowned in the Third Factory fire, on the Palpaten, near Ellicott City, yesterday, while trying to escape arrest, was recovered about 5 o'clock last evening.—Bishop Foley of Detroit will make a visit to Baltimore on May 27, and will be the guest of the Rev. T. J. Brody, pastor of St. Martin's Church.

—Tuesday evening Mr. John L. Milburn, one of the judges of the St. Mary's County Orphan's Court, was struck by lightning and killed at Leonardtown.—Wm. Kibler was convicted of manslaughter at Woodstock, Va., yesterday and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.—James Brown was drowned while swimming at Woodstock yesterday.—Mrs. Harris, wife of Mr. George W. Harris, one of the leading citizens of Hagerstown, died suddenly Wednesday night.—Specimens of gold have been found on the farms of Mr. N. H. Robertson, about two miles southwest of Rockville, and on Judge Boule's farm, two miles east of Rockville.—The body of an unknown man, much decomposed, was found, it is thought, after being taken to Oxford, Talbot county. There was nothing in the clothing but a five-cent piece.—Sharp's Island, in Chesapeake Bay, has been sold by Gen. F. A. Starling to the Maryland D. Oyster Co. for $5,000.—The encampment of the Maryland militia will be held at Frederick Junction, beginning July 17 and continuing ten days.—The Maryland State Board of Appeal has decided against the exemption of savings banks from taxation.—The oyster navy force will be reduced June 1.—Gov. Jackson has pardoned W. J. McCausland, Ah Ying and Elizabeth Johnson, Sylvester Cable, a bridge workman, of Toledo, Ohio, was accidentally killed in Washington county yesterday.—Chief Justice Fuller was banqueting by the Norfolk bar last night.

EARLY MORNING NEWS.
 The United States steamer Boston from New York passed Fort Monroe, Va., for Norfolk at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.—Miss Sheretz tried to rescue a boy who was drowning in Trout Lake, Bartow, Florida, yesterday, and lost her own life.—The strike of the stenographers of Pittsburgh and Allegheny has been settled by an agreement to arbitrate. Pending arbitration, the men have resumed work at the old wages.—Henderson Watson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, has accepted an invitation to deliver an oration before the South Carolina Press Association at Charleston next year.

Tharp's Anti-Malaria Tonic.
 There is no dealer in liquor and wines in the National Capital who is better and more favorably known than Mr. James Tharp, at 218 F street, for the purity of the goods he handles, the excellence of the Old Rye Berkeley Whisky. As a tonic it has no equal.

It is both a preventive and a sure cure for malaria; it acts like a charm directly on the liver, which is the seat of all disorders of the system when in an unhealthy condition.

Congressman Mahoney's Will.
 The contest over the will of the late Congressman Peter Paul Mahoney was commenced yesterday in New York before Surrogate Abbott in Brooklyn. The will is contested by the two sisters of the deceased, Mrs. Mahoney and Mrs. Cahill, who claim that it was made under undue influence. The estate was left by the deceased to his widow, Dr. John P. Burwell testified that he was called to see Mr. Mahoney in consultation with Dr. Sauer. He saw Mr. Mahoney sign the will and saw the nurse, Bartlett and Margaret Watkins sign it as witnesses. The doctor said he read it over to him, and he said it was his wish. He appeared perfectly rational at the time. On cross-examination the doctor testified that Mr. Mahoney appeared a little light-headed when he first saw him.

"STORE NEWS"
 —BY—
WOODWARD & LOTHROP

This is the season above all others that bargains abound. We are able to close out 'Odd Lots' from importers and manufacturers at half and less than half their first-of-the-season prices. We are opening bargain lots every day—some of which only last a day, being quickly bought up by the passing throng. Take the 50c. Framed Pictures as an illustration. We advertised them Wednesday and by Thursday at 2 or 3 o'clock we hadn't one left. Take the thousand Pocket-books at half-price and less. You can now almost count the balance of them at a glance.

SATEENS.—Fifteen cents for the least desirable patterns of French Sateens and twenty-three cents per yard for the choicest. American Sateens, 15c. Scotch Sateens, 20c.

Another quarter-ton of that excellent linen paper at 50c. per pound. This will be good news to those who were unable to get any of the first quarter-ton. It lasted about four days. This probably won't last as long. Think of a linen paper at 50c. a pound, when the lowest prices heretofore have been 75c., 80c. and up. It is a trade triumph that we gladly have you share with us. The centre table will be filled. Twenty-five envelopes to match for 8c.

PAN BARGAIN. 1 lot of fine Satin Fans, with 3-inch feather edge, in Pink, Light Blue, White and Cardinal, reduced to 50c. Let this introduce you to the finest and most reasonable goods in the city.

EVENING GLOVES FOR THE MAY FESTIVAL. During the summer we clean up and clear out in order to get ready for the Fall and Winter trade. So, if you wish to buy a Piano or Organ, that has been out at rent or taken in exchange, by buying now you can get the advantage of summer prices and save a great deal of money. We have Upright Pianos at all prices from $125 upwards; Organs $22, $27, and so on. All kinds of Musical Instruments at a reduction. We want the room, and we must get rid of the goods. Now is your great opportunity.

We are sole agents for the Bohemian Music Paper—straw tinted—and will not blot or spread the ink; only 40 cents per quire.

And also for 'Harris' Sheet Music Binder,' for repairing torn and damaged music. A box containing sufficient to mend forty pages of music only 25 cts.

The Arion Guitar, only $12; the American Conservatory Guitar, only $15; the Washburn Guitar, from $25 upward. All American made; guaranteed not to split or warp, and to be fretted absolutely correct.

We keep everything kept in a first-class Music Store, and we do not hesitate to say our Sheet Music Department is the largest and most complete in the city. Special terms to teachers and those entitled to a discount. Come and see our store and avail yourself of our summer prices.

Are Superior to Any in the Market.

1. Because they are made from the highest types of European grapes transported to the most fruitful valley in California.

2. Because of the many varieties—each is from the best-known grape for that particular wine—and consequently they are uniform in character from year to year; a very important fact with druggists and consumers.

3. Because they are made in the most careful manner and by the most approved methods.

4. Because they are full strength, pure juice wines, produced from the grape by natural processes only. They are
